RIDDELLS CREEK TRAIL HORSE RIDING CLUB

RIDE REPORT

NEWBURY 10 AUGUST 2014

The date of this ride was changed from 17 August back to 10 August. From the lack of numbers - it appears many members had made other arrangements for 10 August!

Terry and Bryan had an unusually good start to the day with horses eager to jump into the float, so after large cappuccinos at Woodend Bakery they arrived at Newbury about 8.15am, driving right past Old Blackwood Road, going on nearly all the way to Blackwood. After a call to Lloyd to get directions they turned back and arrived at the right place as Robbie (our newly elected President and Chief Trail Leader) was putting out the signs.

By 9.30am no one else had turned up, so we rugged up, down jackets under dri-azabones, very bulky like fat suits, but needed. We were about to mount when Gary Manly and his handsome paint arrived, so we four gutsy, determined, and totally committed riders set out in a cold drizzle. Terry said "Are we mad, what are we doing here?", but after about 15 minutes the sky cleared and we got a bit hot, as can be seen from the first photo halfway up Blue Mountain. Along the way we went past many gold mine diggings, arriving at the old "Blue Mountain" cemetery, Robbie explaining graves dated back to gold rush days when there were 4,000 shacks along the road from Trentham to Newbury, mainly timber cutters providing materials for the mines.

We continued to the top of Blue Mountain, needing a couple of rests as it is a steep climb. Terry's 16 year old hairy Rory was taking very short steps as we proceeded upwards while his sister 4 year old Tacka lathered up a little

It is 871m above sea level where there is a major Telstra mobile tower with a generator running, backed up by a decent sized batch of solar panels, with nice views over the farmlands and forest to "Kattaminga" where the TV series "The Man from Snowy River" was filmed. In the 1980's through early 1990's Kattaminga was a similar camp to Boomerang with weekend rides, and school camps, after which the film set was built there for the series. Robbie took us along the fenceline, and from the bush we could see the two story hotel, and a 3 story building with balconies, along with other sheds and buildings to give the impression of a village from that era. It now functions as a bed and breakfast with no horses available

We crossed the bitumen of the Newbury to Blackwood Road, and rode into the nice forest of tall mountain ash heading towards Lyonville, at which time we had a brief hail shower – undaunted we four brave riders pressed on, thinking it may be too cold to stop for lunch, but after a while as we crossed the old Karlsruhe to Daylesford railway line – now a walking/riding trail - we had blue skies and stopped in a sunny spot for lunch

However the weather changed on us, and after some hail, it snowed. The other photo is of the sturdy stalwarts enjoying their lunch irrespective of the weather. It was not too cold, and in fact Robbie became so overheated after viewing some images on an iPhone, he took off his chappettes to cool down. As the weather cleared we mounted and rode off, but after 20 minutes or so Robbie realised he did not have a chappette on his left leg, so he cantered back, away into the distance while the others followed at a leisurely pace.

Robbie returned fully kitted out, and we had a pleasurable ride through the forest back to the bitumen, and across to a wide grassy verge followed back to our floats at about 2.45pm. Coffee and even Port set us up nicely for the trip home, and once again the horses entered the float calmly, travelled and unloaded with no fuss.

We know, Trentham Forest can be cold – it is in “Cool Country” but we had a great day, and felt sorry for those poor members huddled around their fires at home – 185 members, about 165 riding members, and only 3 riders and the President turned up!

Once again Robbie’s pre planning and map work made the day – thanks again – El Presidento

Heritage Horse Brumby Rally, Echuca - 16th August 2014.

Knowing the buzz you get every time you manage to sight an elusive brumby in the wild, and thinking about the distinct possibility of 'Parks' authorising the removal of these beautiful horses from the Barmah Forest, I got organised and signed up to attend the Echuca street parade being held in protest. In fact I was quite looking forward to it – something really different, a weekend away camping with my horse and my great riding club friends, and a cause well worth the support.

I arrived at the Rotary Steam Park in suburban Echuca in the afternoon on Friday and was surprised to see so many people already there. It looked like our club had secured a nice little corner down the back with several hot tape yards already up (thanks fellas – it was great to pull Smudge out of the float and chuck him straight in!) Float after float rolled up in the beautiful Echuca sunshine and we spent the arvo setting up, having a few drinks and catching up with friends.

Later on, a few car-loads of us ventured over the boarder for dinner to the Moama Pub, which proved to be a great night full of laughter (& drinks) before we returned to the park to socialise around the campfire.

Saturday morning arrived and we got saddled up and attended the horseless muster before having some spare time to ride a few laps of the park, getting our horses used to all the activity and the teams of harness horses leading the parade.

I think 5 horse drawn wagons and over 100 horses then headed out the gate under Police escort at 11.00am. Club members Michelle & Paul Moulden played a massive part in the organising of this rally, and it was arranged that 3 experienced Riddell members in Alan Schulz, Paul Peddie & Lloyd Fletcher would lead the riding contingent. It was an absolutely amazing experience to be a part of.....roads were blocked by Police and traffic management, with traffic banking way-back so that we could have right-of-way. People were waving in support on our rally up the Northern Highway, along the main street and through the Port of Echuca. There were photographers, men, women & children and friends of friends on every corner taking photos and waving – in fact it was quite emotional. People on the ride were calling out all along the way "save the brumbies", "they need your support" and "don't let the brumbies be removed from Barmah", etc. etc.

The whole parade took about an hour & a half, and it worked just like a well-oiled-machine. There were no incidents and I think every horse knew they were there with a job to do.

After we arrived back at the park and settled the horses, there were some guest speakers to listen to and a display by a local horse breaker and his renowned brumby stallion in the afternoon, followed by some musical entertainment later into the evening. So much planning had gone into this event, it was just amazing.

Having had such a wonderful time the night before, another big group of us decided to jump on the pub courtesy bus and head back to Moama for a meal. This was again followed by some more laughs around the campfire of course!

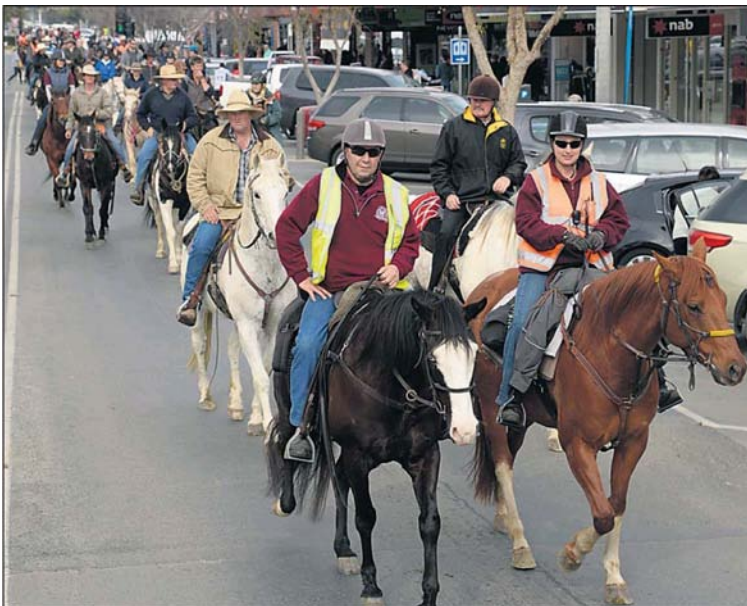

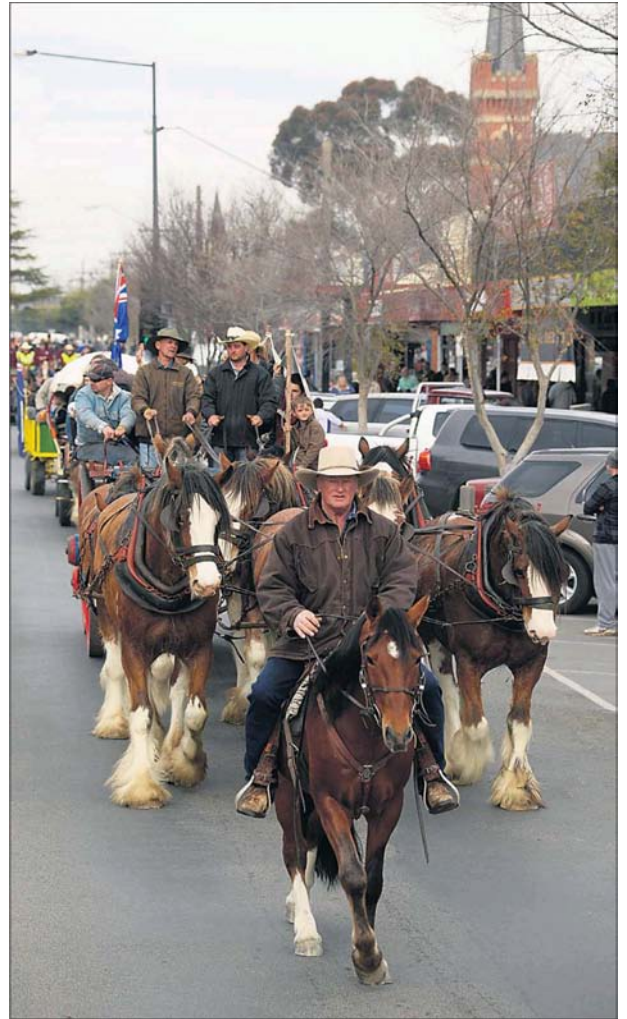

All-in-all, it was a fantastic weekend supporting a cause that needs our voices. Hopefully we were successful in gaining attention to the plight of the Barmah Brumbies – but time will tell of course, so please put your hand up and pitch in, if & when future opportunities arise.

A MASSIVE thank you to the Moulden's for their focus and support offered to the organisers, and for bringing us lot in on this important issue. And to everyone else who helped out by wearing a vest (and bought me drinks and made me laugh – you're the best!) Unfortunately Paul Moulden suffered a little mishap Saturday arvo which took the shine off just a tiny bit, but we hope the knee gets better soon Paul!

Thinking about it, I just can't imagine riding the Barmah Forest if there were to be no Brumbies to spy through the trees.....so keep your fingers crossed everyone.

From the bitumen trail this time, regards Allison Seeley.

BRUMBY AWARENESS PARADE ECHUCA 2014

It was an emotional experience for riders and watchers as more than 100 horses trotted through Hare St and the Port of Echuca for the Heritage Horse event on Saturday.

"It was absolutely brilliant," event organiser Lynette Sutton said. "A lot of people enjoyed seeing the horses come through the port." Boasting riders from NSW, South Australia and across Victoria, the 107 horses and carriages started and finished at Rotary Park.

The event celebrated horses throughout history and raised awareness of Barmah National Park brumbies.

Ms Sutton said the event went perfectly to plan, with the horses, riders and crowd members all safe thanks to the efforts of Campaspe Shire council, the police and traffic controllers.

"Everyone worked so well together," she said.

"It made the event such a pleasure to do and such a success.

"There haven't been any negative comments so far."

The reaction of having so many horses go through town was quite emotional, Ms Sutton said.

"A lot of people, even the riders . . . got quite teary," she said.

"The significance of a past long gone and the knowledge that if we don't do things and change the way we manage things, that past will be gone forever.

"It was very nostalgic, very emotional and we'll be back there next year bigger and better."

BOOMERANG WEEKEND

Boomerang was a limited amount of places weekend, but yippee we got in, it was a beautiful day Friday, so a lot of members made the most of it and arrived early, some even went out for a ride,

What a fantastic place to stay, everyone settled in and got in the party mode and a catch up Friday night in front of an open fire place. It turned out to be a long night with every one being excited to catch up with one another, but really it was all happening in the girls room when we all finally got to bed. No sleep till after 3am with all the talking and giggling like school girls on camp J

Saturday was a beautiful day, sun was shining, it was saddle up time and we rode out at around 10 am with 46 riders, lead out by Lane (LB) and Mat. What a great ride it was, 1 of the best rides I've been on. Had a bit of everything hills, river Xing's and a pub at the lunch point with a great meal. What more could you ask for. We had a couple of mishaps along the way but all turned out well and all had a great day.

Saturday night was party night and the club got some cakes to celebrate a few of us lady's birthdays and sung us happy birthday which was funny, all trying to say the 3 names J . There was some very competitive table tennis going on, which was good for a laugh with all the sooky losers, that are waiting for a rematch next year J to be continued. It was good entertainment along with the funny conversations that were going on, we all had a great night.

Sunday morning we crawled out of bed or fell outit was time to get ready for another ride, felt like a slow start after Saturday night. We had a few riders not feeling up to the ride, seems they needed some retail therapy at the Daylesford Market, but the rest of us saddled up and went out for another great ride. Thanks to Lane & Mat, think we all kicked back and really relaxed on the ride, then we headed back to Boomerang to a BBQ lunch and more chats. All in all I think everyone had a great weekend, then it was the sad time to start packing up and heading home.

We have such a great time because of all the great members.

Bring it on next year,
Kim & Karen xxxx
